Opening Solutions

Experience a safer and more open world

All-round software solution for Master Key Systems

Create

new lockcharts easily, select products conveniently from the ASSA ABLOY database, and validate your planning

Design

Save time and create lockcharts with a few clicks: with drag-and-drop from a simple, intuitive interface.

Select

All details for cylinders and keys are available in one place, minimizing cross-checking time and speeding up delivery.

Validate

Avoid mistakes with creation error notifications and the ability to request technical audits.

You can also import floorplans, so all doors, keys and cylinders connect visually with a lockchart. Learn more in our demo video »

Order

or reorder directly in the software, track the status of your orders anytime and from anywhere, and reduce delivery times

Order directly

Place orders and reorders directly in Key Studio to make your workflow more efficient.

Track

Check your order status online and share with project stakeholders – anytime and from anywhere.

Speed up

Benefit from reduced delivery times for your Master Key System and replacements.

Maintain

your Master Key System with ease: you'll always have instant access to all your lockcharts or other important project data and can quickly modify

Modify

Update your lockcharts easily with cylinders or key changes all in one document, keeping sight of all lockchart additions or changes.

Trace

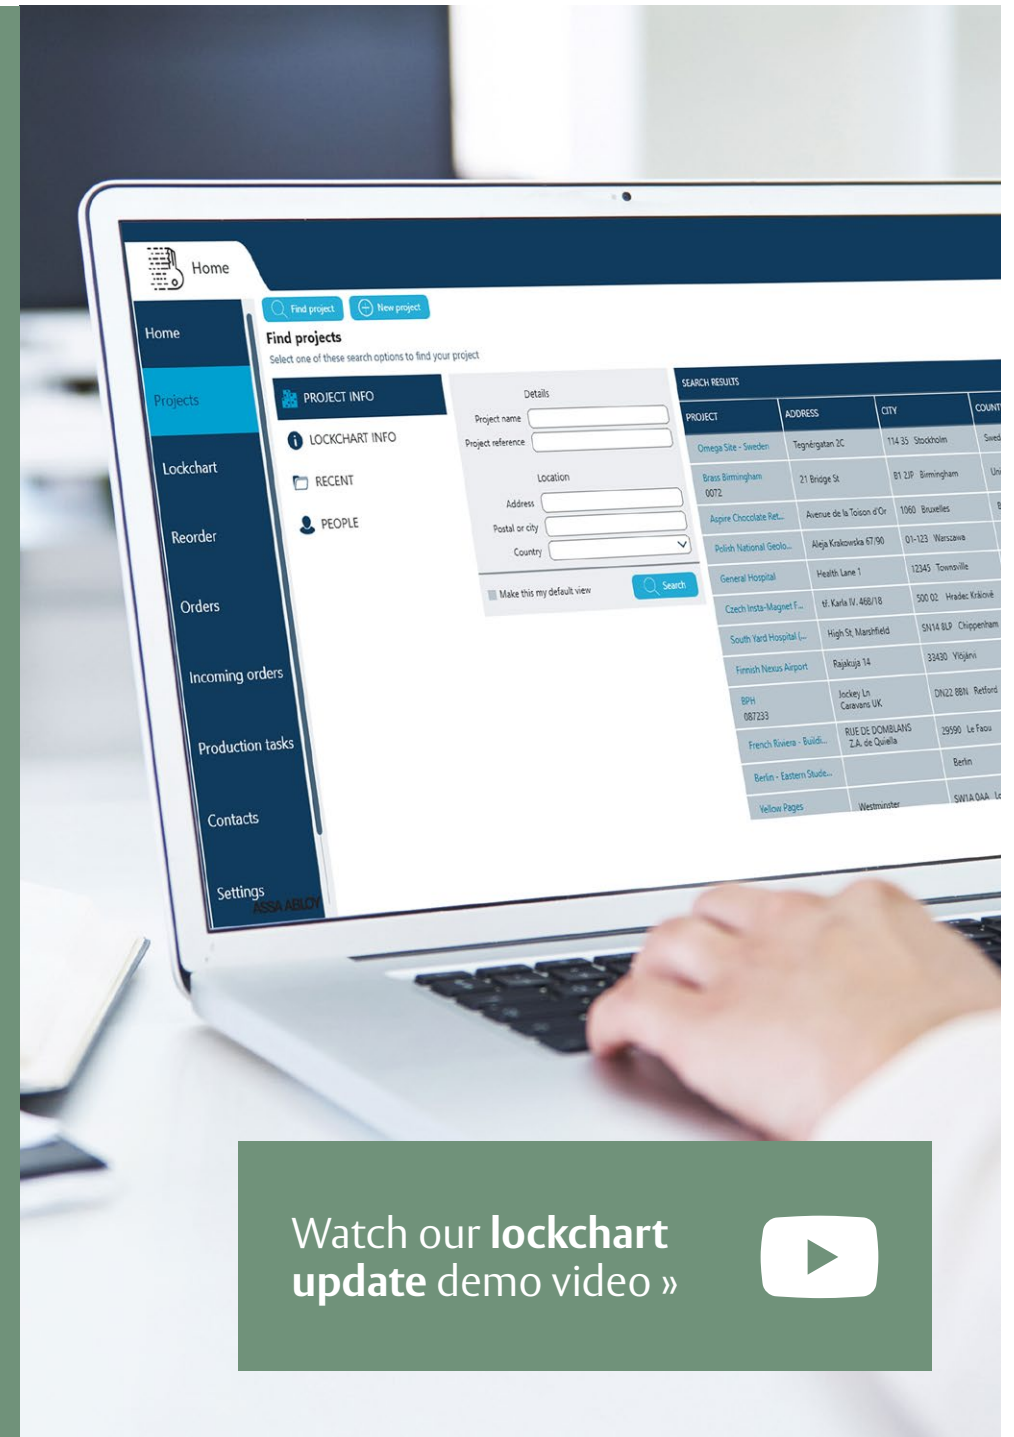

Identify security vulnerabilities faster: Key Studio highlights any cylinders compromised by lost keys.

Access

Store all your projects, contacts, and orders securely within Key Studio – view and manage all in one place, from anywhere.
