

ASSA ABLOY New Zealand Limited is New Zealand's leading manufacturer of door and window hardware and conducts its business with high standards of integrity and concern for the environment. The company has an Environmental Management System that is certified to ISO 14001: 2015. Sustainability is a natural translation of ASSA ABLOY Cornerstones, and it is our unconditional aim to make sustainability an integral part of business philosophy.

We will take a leadership role in addressing business ethics, environmental and social responsibilities that are critical challenges in the society of which we are an integral part.

In pursuit of high standards in environmental performance ASSA ABLOY New Zealand Limited will:

- Meet all environmental legal requirements, and other requirements to which it subscribes, including a risk approach related to its identified environmental aspects.
- Minimise the environmental impacts of its manufacturing processes, products and technologies and will operate its facilities so as to minimise resource consumption, prevent pollution and minimise production of waste.
- Apply the principles of continual improvement by regularly reviewing the environmental objectives and targets and compare this against relevant standards and industry benchmarks. Continuously seek ways to improve our work environment and reduce risks that can cause accidents and pollution.
- Through its management ensure that relevant stakeholders, including contractors, are aware of our expectations regarding environmental responsibilities and provide those working for us, or on our behalf, with adequate leadership, training, systems and resources to fulfil that responsibility.
- Communicate openly with government bodies, industry associations and the community in relation to this environmental policy and performance where relevant.
- Ensure the Management Team is responsible for implementing and upholding this policy.

This policy, authorised by the Management Team, is communicated to the public and to persons working for and on behalf of ASSA ABLOY New Zealand Limited.

Chris Hancox
SVP and Head of AA New Zealand